Births, Deaths, and Marriages—Registration of—Fees. (Chap. 44, Act Apr. 28, 1915.)

SECTION 1. That sections 7 and 8,¹ of chapter 35, Alaska Session Laws, 1913, of an act entitled "An act to require the registration of vital statistics in the Territory of Alaska, and for other purposes," approved April 25, 1913, be amended so as to read as follows:

SEC. 7. That it shall be the duty of every person authorized to perform marriages within the Territory of Alaska to make out a marriage certificate in triplicate upon blanks which shall be furnished him by the Territorial registrar of vital statistics upon application therefor. The said certificate shall conform to the present requirements of the law of the Territory of Alaska as to what a marriage certificate shall contain, except that in addition to the present requirements of a marriage certificate said certificate shall state in what commissioner's precinct the marriage was performed and that said certificate will be filed for record and recorded in said precinct within 30 days after said marriage is performed, and the person performing said marriage shall deliver one copy of said marriage certificate to the husband, one copy to the wife, and within 30 days from the date of the marriage shall file the third copy with the United States commissioner of the precinct in which the marriage was performed. And the person solemnizing the marriage shall collect from the contracting parties an amount sufficient to cover the commissioner's fee for recording said marriage certificate, which amount he shall pay to the United States commissioner at the time he files said certificate of marriage. And in case he shall fail or refuse to collect said recording fee as above provided, he shall pay the amount of said recording fee to said United States commissioner out of his own funds. And any person failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this section, or with any part thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 8. That it shall be the duty of every United States commissioner within the Territory of Alaska to record every birth certificate, death certificate, and marriage certificate presented to him for record; and said United States commissioner shall receive as compensation for his services in recording each of said certificates the fees prescribed by the Attorney General of the United States for similar services performed by United States commissioners acting as ex officio recorders.

The United States commissioner of each precinct shall on or before the 10th day of each month transmit to the Territorial registrar of vital statistics all original certificates of birth, death, and marriage filed with him for the preceding calendar month; and he shall at the same time submit to the Territorial registrar an account of fees due for recording certificates of birth and death during the preceding calendar month, which account shall be audited by the Territorial registrar, and if approved by him shall be paid from the funds of the Territory.

SEC. 2. That chapter 35 of Alaska Session Laws of 1913 shall hereby be enacted in all particulars except as amended by this act.
